CELEBRATE at WILSON HOUSE

Weddings and Receptions

Whether it’s a graduation, wedding, engagement party, or milestone occasion, the Woodrow Wilson House offers an elegant setting for your special event. Customized to fit the specific vision of each party, we can accommodate your requests. Our options range from an intimate private dinner for 12, a seated event in the garden for 100, or a reception for 200 guests.

Conveniently located just 5 blocks from Dupont Circle, Wilson House is a celebrated historic site ideal for your wedding or reception.

You and your guests will feel welcome in our private and sophisticated spaces, furnished with the personal effects of a president. The Wilson House offers the perfect opportunity to entertain in classic Washington style.

Dine intimately in the Presidential Dining Room, enjoy cocktails throughout the main museum rooms, linger in the tranquil period Garden, or relax and unwind on the Terrace.

The Woodrow Wilson House is an exceptional setting for your special celebrations.
AN URBAN OASIS

In addition to the authentically furnished museum rooms, Wilson House offers the use of the fully restored garden and a tiled terrace. Designed in 1915, the historic Garden offers three different levels, graduating in size. The Terrace with its rooftop view is perfect for cocktails. The Upper and Lower Gardens allow for dinner or ceremony seating.

TENTING

Tenting is recommended as a rain plan for all events that exceed the museum's interior capacity (100 standing or 36 seated).

All events include exclusive access to the museum and garden throughout the evening.
Larger events feature cocktails in the Museum and on the Terrace with other elements of your celebration in the Garden. The Lower Garden, a classic 1920s 'Garden Room,' provides seating space for a dinner up to 120 guests or a ceremony of up to 140 guests, while the Upper Garden works well for dancing and has access to the Terrace with its rooftop views.
